

Dear Friend,

The Museum of Appalachia, a Smithsonian Affiliate, will host its twelfth annual Barn Dance event on Friday, June 13, 2025, on the Museum grounds. The evening will feature live and silent auctions, a sumptuous Southern buffet, old-time musical entertainment, and more.

Please consider becoming a sponsor of this event to show your support for the Museum of Appalachia. The success of this event is crucial to the continued livelihood of the Museum and the preservation of our region's heritage. On the next page you'll find both sponsorship levels and benefits received for your donation.

With its special events throughout the year and its daily presentation of an authentic Appalachian farm and village, the Museum attracts visitors from across the country, creating a significant economic impact. As an educational resource that invites people to personally experience Appalachian history and culture, the Museum contributes to our community's quality of life.

The Museum is a 501 (c)(3) not-for-profit organization dedicated to the mission of preserving our region's past for future generations. Please help keep the story of our collective history alive by making a tax-deductible contribution to this entertaining event.

Sincerely,
